

Katanga Tension Mounts

Roadblocks On Road To UN Camps

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (P)—Foreign Minister Evariste Kimba of Katanga threatened today to shoot down all U.N. planes flying over this secessionist province and Katanga troops followed up the declaration by throwing up roadblocks on main roads leading to the airport and the U.N. Indian troop camp.

Kimba's threat was termed a "very grave statement" by acting U.N. Chief George Ivan Smith, who reported it at once to U.N. headquarters in New York. Katanga troops killed one U.N. soldier, wounded three and seized 15 hostages during the weekend.

Today Katanga soldiers blocked roads with tree trunks, oil drums and heavy rocks. All traffic was turned back. Two armored cars moved up to one road block. U.N. troops moved up three armored cars to face them.

At an abandoned military supply depot in Elisabethville, Katanga paratroopers dug in and took up defensive positions. When asked what they were doing a staff sergeant said:

"This is war with the United Nations."

Tension between Katangans and U.N. troops is at flashpoint.

In a communique Sunday night Kimba said the Katanga government had rejected an ultimatum by the United Nations for removal of all roadblocks. The communique said the United Nations had threatened to use force as authorized by the Security Council and the Katanga government had warned in turn that "force will be met with force."

Smith sent a protest to Kimba calling for the immediate release of the 15 U.N. military personnel.

In Paris, Katanga President Moise Tshombe declared that if U.N. forces attempt "a new armed intervention" in Katanga the fighting "will be on a major scale because the Katangan people are determined to preserve their freedom."

Tshombe accused U.N. Acting Secretary General U Thant of "intolerable provocation" by issuing an order to his representatives in the Congo to act vigorously to re-establish law and order.

May Clash Over Relief Of Refugees

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States and Israel headed today for an open clash with the Arab world over how to help the 1,500,000 Palestine Arab refugees.

The General Assembly's special political committee was to take up the annual report of the U.N. Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Arab refugees in which director John H. Davis of the United States endorsed a 13-year-old assembly decision that the estimated 1,150,000 refugees of the 1948 Arab-Israeli war should be given the choice between going home to Israel and taking compensation for the property they left there.

Saudi Arabian delegate Ahmad Shukairy planned to insist that the refugees should be given this choice. Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir was expected to set forth Israel's stand that it is willing to help compensate the refugees but not to take them in for fear they would endanger its security.

Diplomatic sources said they expected trouble between the United States and the 10 Arab countries over at least two of three proposals being prepared for submission to the committee.

The United States was working on a resolution to commend American scholar Joseph E. Johnson for his Arab-Israeli mediation as special representative for the U.N. Palestine Conciliation commission.

The Arabs did not like Johnson's recent report, which said it must be assumed that "there will be Palestine Arab refugees for at least a decade."

Jordan, Lebanon, Syria and the United Arab Republic, hosts to the refugees, were working on a resolution to increase the membership of the conciliation commission from three to nine and give equal representation to Communist, Western and neutral countries.

No Progress In Dominican Talks Noted

Seek Government Unity To End All Political Strife

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Government and opposition representatives reopened negotiations Sunday on a unity government to end the island nation's political crisis but an opposition leader said the talks "have not advanced at all."

A general strike backing demands of the National Civic Union—the largest opposition group—that President Joaquin Balaguer quit in favor of a provisional junta government entered its seventh day.

Viriato A. Fiallo, head of the civic union, cabled the Organization of American States in Washington asking the "urgent presence" of an OAS observation team because of the "extremely grave" political situation.

"A vacuum in the civil power threatens the installation of supreme military power with liquidation of all vestiges of democracy," Fiallo said.

Fiallo said after an hour-long conference with Balaguer's representatives, the civic union was adamant that Balaguer must step down before any new government could be formed.

It was learned privately that the Balaguer administration, which Thursday turned down a formula submitted by the civic union, offered some concessions. Unofficial reports said Balaguer had suffered a light attack of hepatitis, a liver ailment, but the government press office said he was at home after a hospital checkup and would be back at the presidential palace today.

A network spokesman declined comment on a report that the sponsor had withdrawn.

Try to Put Test Blame On the West

U. S. Announces Low-yield Blast; Another Planned

MOSCOW (AP)—The Russians tried again Sunday night to put the blame on the West for continuance of nuclear weapon tests.

The Soviet government declared that unless the Western powers stop all nuclear weapons tests—including underground explosions that don't produce radioactive fallout—it will resume "such nuclear tests as it deems necessary for the consolidation of its defense capacity."

A few hours after the Moscow warning the United States announced it had set off a low-yield underground nuclear blast Sunday and is preparing to go ahead with another test next Sunday.

"Our announced policy is to test and talk," a State Department spokesman said in Washington.

The Russians, who broke a three-year moratorium on nuclear testing Sept. 1 for a series of big to gigantic nuclear explosions in the atmosphere, said the time has come now "for the early achievement of an agreement which would rid the peoples of experimental weapon blasts."

Berlin Wall Grows Thicker; US Troops In Show of Force

JFK Plan On Autobahn Is Rejected

Kremlin Paper Chides 'Big Stick' Policy

MOSCOW (P)—The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia says President Kennedy's suggestion that the autobahn linking Berlin and West Germany be placed under international control seems to be a "big stick" policy. It told him to forget the idea because it is "doomed to failure."

The Kremlin organ chided the President for what it called a "cock and bull" charge that the Soviet Union is out to communize the world.

Commenting on the interview Kennedy gave Izvestia editor Alexi Azhubei, the paper said the President put forward "quite a few reasonable ideas"—but these were not among them.

Izvestia upheld the "sacred right" of the East German Communist regime to regulate ground, river and air traffic within its territory and declared: "No state which prizes its sovereignty has ever allowed the establishment of international control over its roads."

The newspaper's 4,000-word commentary Sunday charged Kennedy's plan was an attempt to help West German "revenge seekers" get control of East Germany's communications.

The autobahn—a superhighway cutting across 110-miles of Communist territory—is the only road route the Western Allies have to Berlin and they have insisted on their right of free movement over the highway. Soviet guards man checkpoints on the road under the four-power occupation agreement.

Peace Terms Reached On Neutral Laos

Agreement Adopted In Closed Session By 14 Nations

GENEVA (AP)—The Western powers and the Soviet Bloc concluded a far-reaching agreement today on how to maintain the peace and neutrality of Laos.

The six-point agreement was adopted at a closed session of the 14-nation Laos peace conference. It will become operative when the neutrality treaty now being drafted by the conference is completed.

Some important obstacles remain to be overcome, particularly the integration of the hostile Laotian military forces. But today's agreement marked the most substantial step forward yet taken by the conference and was hailed by Western and Communist delegates alike.

The agreement names Britain and the Soviet Union as joint permanent guardians of Laotian neutrality.

The British and Soviet delegates are the co-chairmen of the 6½-month-old conference. Under the new agreement, their governments are to consult each other and decide what action to take whenever the peace or neutrality of Laos is threatened.

Improvement Project By Telephone Firm

Another major improvement project is now underway in Green Ridge. Last week the United Telephone Co. of Missouri moved its present building back from the street about 30 feet so that construction of a new building can be made on the site. The new building will house the automatic switching equipment to be used when the Green Ridge telephone system is switched to dial operation about the middle of the summer of 1962.

Work has been underway for a week on the new school building in Green Ridge and workmen hope to pour the concrete for the foundation this week.

American Platoon Faces East German Counterpart

BERLIN (P)—Working through the night under floodlights, 2,500 East German workers narrowed the seven crossing points between West and East Berlin today and strengthened the adjacent sections of the Berlin wall with more concrete.

With a bazooka and two machine guns set up behind sandbags, the American soldiers faced several hundred men of the East German people's army, also in battle dress with machine guns.

The British increased their patrol on their short stretch of border near the Brandenburg Gate, and French officers were reported observing the activity along the border of their sector.

The formidable new walls were about seven feet high and five feet thick. Tank barriers of steel hedgehogs were cemented into the ground.

Only small passage for traffic, about eight feet wide for vehicles and two to three feet for pedestrians, were left open.

The East Germans said they were strengthening the wall to protect East Berlin from any ill-advised Western action. The Interior Ministry added that it was East Germany's reply to U.S. troop movements on the 100-mile autobahn linking West Berlin with the free world.

Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II, the U.S. commandant in West Berlin, rushed a written protest to his Soviet counterpart, Col. Andrei I. Solovoyev.

Watson called the new East German action an illegal violation of the four-power occupation agreements on Berlin and demanded Soviet assurances that there would be no interference with Allied and civilian traffic between the U.S. sector and East Berlin. Watson called the East German explanation "an obviously ridiculous justification."

Before the work started at 6 p.m., two U.S. Army buses took half a hundred uniformed Air Force reserve officers from Washington on a two-hour tour of East Berlin.

Judges Take Tax Problem To Capital

Presiding Judge C. Barry Elliott of Pettis County, accompanied by the presiding judges from the Cooper, Montauk and Morgan County Courts, met with the Missouri State Tax Commission in Jefferson City last week to discuss assessments against rural electric cooperatives for installing utility poles along public rights-of-way.

The discussion centered around utility poles installed in the four counties mentioned. The judges indicated they feel some of the cooperatives in these counties have not cooperated fairly with the highway department in regards to exorbitant charges being made for removing poles and lines wherever necessary to build new state roads.

Removal of poles and lines to make way for the new roads takes a considerable amount of money and time, the judges indicated, and they feel the practice of charging the counties for the removal is unfair.

Judge Elliott said that as far as Pettis County is concerned, and in view of the fact that the Central Missouri Electric Co-op always pays these costs without complaint whenever asked, he feels other cooperatives can do the same.

It was noted at the meeting that there are a number of rural electric cooperatives in Missouri, and that these firms move their poles and lines without cost to the county in which they are located. In view of these facts the judges indicated they feel the COMO Electric Co-op of Tipton can also pay for the removal or change in location for their poles, and that they will bring the situation to a conclusion in the next meeting of the Tax Boards of Equalization in each county concerned.

"At this time," Judge Elliott said, "we have approximately five to seven miles of COMO lines in Pettis County, according to information we have received to date."

The remainder of rural Pettis County is served by the Central Missouri Electric Co-op of Sedalia.

Nehru Appeal To Christians On Cold War

Makes Peace Bid To World Council Of Churches

NEW DELHI, India (P)—Prime Minister Nehru appealed to Christian leaders from around the world today to approach international problems in a "friendly spirit rather than in the spirit of the cold war."

"If we seek peace, we must in some ways adopt the ways of peace," he told the general assembly of the World Council of Churches.

He urged the gathering of "the great leaders of religious thought" to face current international issues squarely and give mankind advice in solving them.

To evade them, he said, is no way to help in their resolution.

But he pleaded that the "manner of approach be friendly" in dealing with the dangerous and extraordinary problems now pervading the international scene.

"The cold war method only aggravates the problems," he said. "I cannot understand how anyone thinks they can achieve peace by methods which only make for more and more war psychosis."

Nehru is not a Christian. He was born into the Hindu faith but later abandoned religion and became an agnostic.

The assembly today took up a committee report stating that whether it exists under a just government or tyranny, the church will still "obey its Lord."

The committee report singled out no particular nations as oppressors but said: "No present difficulties justify Christians or churches in acquiescing in either old or new forms of tyranny. Government without consent of the governed cannot be approved by Christians in our time."

Regarding the cold war the report said years of mutual distrust have given nations "false and fixed images" of one another.

"The Marxist-Leninist view of basic conflict with capitalism does not necessarily mean that global nuclear war will inevitably take place," it said.

"On the other hand the goals of Western society do not necessarily imply an armed crusade."

The assembly, representing 198 Protestant, Orthodox and other denominations with more than 350 million members from all sections of the globe, took up reports as it neared its close Tuesday.

School Prayers Considered By Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to consider whether it is unconstitutional for prayers to be said in public schools.

A petition submitted by parents of nine children in four schools in New Hyde Park, N.Y., contends the offering of prayer in schools violates the Constitution's principle of separation of church and state.

The New York State Board of Regents, the governing body of the state's public school system, had recommended to all local school boards that this prayer be used daily in opening exercises:

"Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon Thee, and we beg Thy blessing upon us, our parents, our teachers, and our country."

The objecting parents said they were, variously, members of the Jewish faith, the Unitarian Church, the Society for Ethical Culture, and one parent is a non-believer.

They appealed to the high tribunal after New York courts ruled the prayer did not violate the Constitution.

Ghosts Fail To Frighten Family Away

MENA, Ark. (AP)—It's going to take more than a ghost or a host of ghosts to run farmer C. E. Shinn off the land he has occupied for 46 years.

Shinn, 72, his wife, 70, and their grandson moved out of their five-room house Saturday night for a rest after the antics of a mischievous "ghost" left them sleepless.

But they moved back in Sunday and Shinn said he was going to stay.

"We just don't believe in Ghosts," he said resolutely. "When something is done, humans have to do it."

For more than a year, something has been harassing the Shinn family in their house 3 miles west of this west Arkansas town. They say that the family Bible floats through the living room, furniture is suddenly overturned. Chairs fly from the kitchen into the living room. Two figurines were smashed against the back of Shinn's head.

Charles Elbert Shaffer, 15, the grandson who lives with the elderly couple, says the cover has been jerked off his bed in the middle of the night.

Awakened one night by howling and hissing sounds, Shinn said, Mrs. Shinn asked whatever it was to be quiet. It didn't. Then she asked it to go to sleep.

"I don't sleep," came the reply. Shinn said.

"Will you let me sleep?" Mrs. Shinn asked.

"You don't need to sleep either," was the answer.

Saturday night the Shinn family went to stay with relatives and Sheriff Bruce Scoggins took three officers and four newsmen to spend the night in the house.

They neither saw nor heard anything out of the ordinary. The Shinn family moved back in and the old farmer says he's there to stay.

Deputy Sheriff John Egger said: "There's no doubt queer things have been going on around here. I can't explain it. Of course, no one believes in ghosts."

He Got the Correct Answer

One of the great staples of Soviet argument is that Russia, having been widely devastated by the Nazis in World War II, lives today in mortal fear of a revived, vengeful Germany.

This argument has been effective propaganda in Europe, where it touches both the fears and the hates of those peoples who remember well their sufferings at Nazi hands. More than a few thoughtful Americans have accepted this Soviet contention as an honest one.

President Kennedy clearly is not among them. With directness and force, he laid bare the fraudulent base of these Soviet "fears" in the interview he granted to Aleksei Adzhubel, editor of the Soviet newspaper Izvestia.

The Russian asked the President to imagine he were a Soviet naval veteran who, having "won the war," now saw defeated Germany refusing to recognize boundaries fixed after the war, building up its armed forces, sending its chancellor to have "secret talks" with Kennedy.

"What would your attitude be?" he asked.

Answering him, Kennedy declared that:

The West Germany the Soviets profess to fear has just nine army divisions, a very small air force, almost no navy, no nuclear weapons or missiles in an age when they are the key to striking power.

The Germany divisions are under NATO's command, not that of the Bonn government. An American officer, not the German generals Russia talks about, is the NATO commander.

In West Germany it requires the units of the 15-member NATO organization together to balance roughly the purely Soviet divisions in East Germany.

The President four separate times said flatly that a West Germany thus equipped and controlled is "not a military threat" to Russia. Though he did not explicitly add it, he implied that the Germans likewise are no military menace to anybody else, including the Scandinavian lands Premier Khrushchev claims are endangered by German "militarism."

If Germany somehow developed its own missiles, nuclear capability and a strong national army that threatened war, said Kennedy, then "I would understand your concern, and I would share it."

But he made plain that the situation is not that way nor does it promise to be in the foreseeable future. And he thinks the Russians know it. The President's points:

"You have stated you are realists. This is not 1939, 1940 or 1941. . . . No one is ever going to invade the Soviet Union again. There is no military power that can do that. . . . In short, if I were a Soviet naval officer, I would feel that the security of the Soviet Union was well protected. . . ."

Adzhubel, who consumed more than a third of the interview with his own argument, offered only a limp, two-line response to Kennedy's long reply. It was his unintentional admission that the President had slashed the phony Soviet case to ribbons.

Health Service Warns of Asian Flu

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — The U. S. Public Health Service is worried about another serious epidemic of Asian flu. It has warned state and municipal health authorities to be on the lookout for another influenza year.

The winter of 1957-58 saw 86,000 deaths attributable to Asian flu and public health doctors don't want to see a repetition this year. With proper preventive measures and care an epidemic can be prevented.

While the heavy flu outbreaks don't usually come until January and February, already there are some signs of local outbreaks. There has been increasing school absenteeism by children suffering from stomach ailments — probably linked to flu—in California and Oregon. The Public Health Service is also keeping an eye on Washington state, though school absenteeism is not as great there as in California and Oregon.

Asian flu usually strikes the west coast first.

Public health officials see no cause for alarm if the American people are alerted and take care of themselves. Chief reason for the havoc caused by Asian flu in 1957-58 was that the public was not prepared. People suffering from chronic lung or heart ailments should be especially careful.

"Give 'Em Hell" Harry

Harry Truman, who has been deluged with requests to speak this fall and winter, has picked one man he wants to support and one place he wants to speak in.

He wants to make sure Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, who has the same fighting qualities as HST, comes back to the Senate. So he will be the featured speaker at a $100-a-plate dinner for Morse on Dec. 7.

Significantly, he will invade the capital of the John Birchites and the 8th column frustrationists—Los Angeles.

It was in Los Angeles that President Kennedy took on the right-wing extremists and was picketed by several thousand of those whom he had denounced for lacking faith in the United States.

Former President Truman is reported preparing a "give 'em hell Harry" fusillade for Dec. 7 to raise money for Morse's re-election.

Some people have forgotten that Truman is the president who had the guts to fire the most famed military man in recent American history—Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

He could have called MacArthur home for consultation, then quietly eased him out. He didn't. He met the issue head on with an abrupt dismissal because he considered it all-important to emphasize the constitutional role of civilian authority over the military in the United States.

The John Birchites have been claiming that the issue between MacArthur and Truman was MacArthur's desire to bomb beyond the 38th parallel. Their memories are faulty. The real issue was that MacArthur in Tokyo

RED BLUFF (Calif.) DAILY NEWS: Keep America Green.—It is appropriate to recognize the 20th anniversary of Keep America Green. . . . Sometimes "Keep America Green" is referred to as a club, probably the largest "club" in the nation. Anyone can join. There are no dues. And whether you belong to the club or not, you are probably helping unwittingly to fulfill its mission—to guard our forests against fire.

Actually, Keep Green is not a club; it's a people's movement. Operating through some 38 states and local units. . . . These groups are helping to educate all Americans—men, women and children—in the value of trees and the contributions our forests are making to the economies of the individual states.

The Keep Green crusade is coordinated at the national level by American Forest Products Industries (AFPI), a non-profit educational organization sponsored by the wood using industries. AFPI stepped into the picture in 1944 when the grassroots movement, started in 1941 in Washington state, became so big that a central control was needed.

Next time you drive by a Keep Green sign, bear in mind that it represents the voices of your fellow citizens asking you to do your part in helping stamp out needless forest fires. If you respond, you can count yourself a member of the club.

JFK and the Press

The Presidential Press Conference is an institution started by the late President Roosevelt. President Truman held them once a week. President Eisenhower held his about once in two weeks. President Kennedy has not done so well.

At his last press conference on November 8 he was asked by one courageous newsmen why the conferences were not held more often, and if there was something the President did not like about them and what could the newsmen do about it.

The reporters laughed when the President said "I like them, sort of" and then gave his reason for the infrequency. "We are involved in a number of sensitive matters on the Berlin question. I feel that the schedule we have had is in the public interest."

The President said he would probably return to a weekly schedule when Congress reconvenes in January and the focus of reporters questions shifts from foreign policy to legislative matters.

Clear Stand On Free Cuban Elections

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy hardly had the words out of his mouth—about wanting to see free elections in Cuba—when Fidel Castro made it plain there won't be any.

Kennedy, in his interview with Izvestia, the Soviet government newspaper, said last week the United States would accept a Communist government anywhere if it was approved by the people of a country in free balloting.

The American dispute with Cuba, Kennedy said, is that Castro has not permitted "free and honest election," and until he does his government cannot claim to represent a majority of his people.

Castro, who took over Cuba almost three years ago, and still has not allowed elections, said over the weekend he was leading his country into communism and would create a single political party with restricted membership.

This means he will pick the membership. The Cubans, like the people in Russia and the satellites, will have to mark yes or no on the candidates chosen for them.

Thus, any prospects of better relations with Cuba become even more remote, particularly since Kennedy said: "What we find to be objectionable, and a threat to the peace, is when a system is imposed by a small militant group by subversion, infiltration, and all the rest."

Kennedy's statement that this government was willing to recognize another government—in this case a Communist government—chosen by its people in free elections is not a new principle in American history.

But there is a certain contradiction in the yardstick he uses for finding a system objectionable when it is imposed by a "small militant group."

That's exactly—through a militant group—how Castro took over Cuba. It's also exactly how the Bolsheviks took over Russia. This country recognizes and deals with Russia but not with Cuba.

But communism is closer in Cuba than in Russia. And besides,

We, the Women

The Modern Housewife: Just Call Her 'Errand Girl'

By RUTH MILLETT

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

There's one time-consuming job I've never seen listed with the other duties of today's housewife and that's errand-running.

Yet any housewife who has an automobile of her own or even occasional use of the family car spends hours every week in running errands for the family.

When a suburban housewife is not actually chaperoning children, chances are she is running errands, "toting" groceries, leaving clothes at the cleaners or picking them up, going to the bank, taking a broken piece of household equipment to be mended, delivering cookies to a bake sale, hurrying the theme junior left at home to his classroom, taking shoes to the cobbler, picking something up at the drugstore—and so on and on and on, day after day and week after week.

The fact is that the average housewife has so many errands to run that the only way she can keep track of them all is by keeping an errand list.

It is the kind of list that is never finished because it is constantly being extended. As soon as a housewife picks up the toaster she left to be repaired, a table lamp goes haywire.

No wonder so many housewives drive station wagons. They may have been purchased as a status symbol — but they've become almost a necessity for the errand-running housewife who actually runs a pickup and delivery service.

Even when the housewife hops in her car for a purely social engagement chances are she has a couple errands to do on the way to her tea or luncheon or on the way home.

A housewife can easily spend a full day a week running errands — and have nothing much to show for her efforts, and no feeling of accomplishment.

And yet errand-running is never mentioned as one of the modern housewife's biggest headaches and most time-consuming duties.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

By RUSSELL A. MANN JR.
Missouri Press News Service

MINERAL EXPLORATION GREATEST IN HISTORY

Missouri presently is enjoying the most intensive and extensive mineral exploration it has ever seen and in addition to well-publicized finds which have resulted in the past few years, more are likely, State Geologist Thomas R. Beveridge told an American Mining Congress meeting in Seattle, Wash.

Dr. Beveridge hinted at several recent significant discoveries but said "the exact location of them and the companies developing them cannot be revealed at present." He did say, however, that they are located in the southeastern quarter of the state, scene of most extensive activity recently.

While the southeastern quarter of the state is getting the most attention, Dr. Beveridge pointed out that interest is being shown in other areas of the state as well. "Isolated magnetic highs near Kansas City, Lebanon, Kahoka, Mexico, West Plains and Wentzville are or have been investigated by mining companies," he stated.

He called "a comparative unknown" in regard to metals the northwestern quarter of Missouri which, he said, contains a chain of magnetic highs extending northwestern from the St. Francois mountain area into Gentry and Holt counties.

"With the exception of some drilling east of Kansas City, there has been no deep exploration drilling for mineral deposits in northwestern Missouri," Dr. Beveridge said.

Most widely heralded of recent Missouri mining activity is that taking place at Pea Ridge. Dr. Beveridge noted that the ultimate scheduled production is two million tons of pelletized iron ore a year. This is "a quantity which will undoubtedly boost Missouri mineral production far above the average of 150 to 160 million dollars annually for the past several years," he said.

Activity at Pea Ridge has spurred some mid-western industrial planners to envision an industrial complex south of St. Louis comparable to that of West Germany's Ruhr Valley.

Activity at Pea Ridge has spurred some mid-western industrial planners to envision an industrial complex south of St. Louis comparable to that of West Germany's Ruhr Valley.

great amount of publicity. It should be emphasized that exploration for lead is at an even greater pitch," Dr. Beveridge told the congress.

In addition to publicized lead ore deposits at Indian Creek near Potosi and a more recent Viburnum discovery, Dr. Beveridge noted that at least four other localities are being extensively drilled.

"These discoveries coupled with the Pea Ridge iron discoveries were responsible for the influx of major mining companies into the state during the past five years," he said.

At least 16 major metal mining companies are engaged in exploration in the state and there are approximately 50 geologists working with these companies, according to Dr. Beveridge. The presence of so many geologists is encouraging, he told the congress, "because it demonstrates the shift from the older hit-or-miss and hunch exploration to scientifically planned programs."

ROADSIDE PARKS WILL BE STUDIED

The federal Bureau of Public Roads has singled out Missouri's roadside parks for study next year. The studies may lead to inclusion of roadside parks along the vast interstate highway system.

Among other things, the federal agency wants to know how many use the parks, who in general is it that use them, when and for how long at a time.

The Missouri highway department has agreed to conduct the study.

Missouri now has 104 roadside parks in the highway system. Land is donated to the state by local individuals or groups and is developed by the highway department. Most parks include picnic tables and ovens. The highway department receives favorable comment upon the parks from tourists and resident citizens alike.

The parks, all of which are located along primary system highways, average in size 2.73 acres. They cost on the average about $2,000 to develop.

PLANNERS NAMED FOR OLD CAPITOL

Architect and engineer who will be charged with drawing up plans for restoration of Missouri's first capitol building have been appointed by the state Park Board.

They are: Kenneth Coombs, Kansas City, architect, and Bob Elgin, St. James, engineer.

Presently the first capitol building, located in St. Charles, is boarded up for the most part. It was obtained by the state for a shrine in the final days of the administration of Gov. James T. Blair Jr.

St. Charles became the Missouri capital in 1820. Jefferson City was made the capitol in 1826.

Major Switch In All-Events Lineup In Womens Tourney

The major switch in the standings of the 31st Annual Missouri State Women's Bowling Tournament was in the All-Events when Marie Stivers of Kansas City turned a combined scratch score of 1799. Her score was 96 pins higher than Marge Willson of St. Louis who moved into first place a week ago.

Stivers bowled two "600" series. She rolled a 642 in the singles and a 606 in the doubles while in the team events her scratch score was 551 for her astounding 1799 total. She is considered one of the top women bowlers in Missouri, especially in the Kansas City area.

There were six changes in standings of the doubles competition: six in the singles, three in the "A" team events and only one in the "B" team events.

In the "A" events, Crews Fashion, Clinton, moved into second spot with their 2869 score; Rosebud's Beauty Chateau, St. Louis, took over sixth place with a 2764; and Leo's Petroleum, Kansas City, eighth place with 2751.

The closest to the 1311 leaders of Mary Wetstein and Pat Fischer of St. Louis in the doubles, is the 1270 of Alice Jean Allen and Bea Winemiller, St. Joseph, rolled a week ago. The changes made this weekend were from third place down, when Jean Gosvener and Thelma Jenkins, of Neosho, rolled a 1259 for the third place, fourth position was taken over by Vivian Humer and Bonnie Kelly, of Kansas City with a 1255; sixth position by Catherine Church and Helen Epple of Clinton with 1247; now in seventh place is Jo Wilson and Bonnie Richner, Kansas City with a 1233; and in the bottom portion in ninth spot are Velma Berry and Penny Wilson, North Kansas City, with 1223; and Judy Ausley and Marie Stivers, tenth, with 1222.

Jan Lebbing, St. Louis, clings to the number one spot in the singles with her 713, but there were several changes in the other positions. Ruby Burge, St. Louis, now second with a 698; Marie Stivers in fourth place with a 684; a tie for sixth position between Norma Barnes, Springfield and Sherill Thraillkill, Liberty, both having 674's; and Joyce Horne, Lee's Summit, eighth in a tie with Dorothy Milliren, Kansas City, both having 670's.

The only change in the "B" team event is eighth place now taken over by Dine A Mite, Lee's Summit with a 2629.

The over-all present standings of the tournament up to date are:

Scalping Indians May Not Be Easy for MIAA Squads

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It may be tougher than they thought for the other M.I.A.A. schools to unseat Cape Girardeau State as basketball champion.

The Indians, who lost some valuable height by graduation, opened their campaign in impressive style last week.

They scored an easy 83-74 triumph over Arkansas State Teachers Saturday night. And they did it without Carl Ritter, who holds Cape's career scoring record. Ritter will miss the first few games while catching up on his school work.

Bill Giessing, 6-4 junior, filled the scoring void with 38 points. Kirkville State, which has the height to head off Cape, wound up even in its first two starts. The Bulldogs tripped Iowa Wesleyan, 62-52, Friday, then fell to powerful Western Illinois, 91-73, Saturday.

With the exception of Maryville, which lost twice, all M.I.A.A. teams opened on a winning note. Warrensburg defeated Ottawa (Kan.), 83-57, but lost to Emporia State, 76-74, a night later.

Maryville fell to Kansas teams Washburn and Pittsburg. But Springfield started strong, trouncing South Dakota State, 80-57. Rolla Mines got by Nichols State of Louisiana, 74-72, in its opener.

The M.I.A.A. teams will not face each other until the conference tournament Dec. 27-28-29 at Cape Girardeau. League play begins Jan. 6.

William Jewell, defending champion of the M.C.A.U., got off to a flying start with a 68-58 victory over Ottawa. The Cards got some unexpected help from Art Cunningham, 6-5 senior center, who did not come out for the sport in his first three years of college. Cunningham snagged 13 rebounds.

Missouri Valley, which defeated Jewell in the N.A.I.A. play-offs last season, tripped College of Emporia Saturday night. It was the third straight for the Vikings, paced by Gary Wachter's 24 points.

Shane Gabein, veteran scoring star, led Tarkio past National, 91-78, and Graceland pointed Park College, 69-42, after losing to Parsons of Iowa in its first game. Culver-Stockett slipped by Carthage of Illinois, 72-70, and Westminster topped Evangel in other feature games last week.

This week's schedule includes: Monday—Warrensburg State at Pittsburg (Kan.); Prairie View (Tex.) at Springfield State.

Tuesday—Westminster at Rolla; Rockhurst at Kirksville State; William Jewell at St. Benedict's; Peris State at Tarkio; National at Missouri Valley.

Wednesday—Cape Girardeau State at Arkansas State.

Thursday—Missouri Valley at Springfield State.

Friday—Southern Illinois at Warrensburg State; Rolla at Harris Teachers (St. Louis); McMurray at Cape Girardeau State; Westminster at Rockhurst; National at Graceland.

Saturday—Emporia State at Warrensburg State; Washburn at Springfield State; Kentucky Wesleyan at Cape Girardeau State; Wayne (Neb.) State at Maryville State; Southern Illinois at Kirksville; Concordia Seminary at Jewell.

Then it settled down to a defensive struggle until Westminster stole the ball from Webster. The Giants had one more chance, rolling into Packers' territory behind

Force East Test

Packers Steal Western Title

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer—The Green Bay Packers stole their showdown struggle with New York, clinching their second consecutive Western Conference crown in the National Football League and forcing the Giants and Philadelphia Eagles into a two-week test of strength for the Eastern title.

Led by Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung, the Packers edged the Giants 20-17 Sunday, wrapping up the Western title with a 10-2 record and leaving New York and the defending league champion Eagles in a tie for the top spot in the Eastern sector with two games remaining. Both New York and Philadelphia have 9-3 records.

The Packers won it as Taylor scored twice on runs of 14 and 3 yards—the last the clincher in the fourth quarter—and Hornung brought his league-leading point total to 143 with a pair of field goals and two conversions. Altogether, Taylor ran for 186 yards, a club record.

The key play was made by Packers' defensive back Jesse Whitenton, who stole the ball from Alex Webster on the Giants' 30 in the final quarter. The Packers, trailing 17-13, took advantage of the grab, Taylor finally going in for the winning touchdown from the 3.

The Eagles brought their record to 9-3 by blitzing the Pittsburgh Steelers 35-24, and have the advantage of playing at home against the Giants next Sunday in a battle that could determine Green Bay's opponent in the Dec. 31 championship playoff.

Not to be counted out, however, are the Cleveland Browns, one game back of the leaders with an 8-4 record after beating Dallas 38-17. The Browns meet Chicago next, then close out at New York while the Eagles are at Detroit.

The Lions moved into second place in the West, beating the Bears 16-15 while the San Francisco 49ers were losing to Baltimore Colts 20-17. St. Louis extended Washington's winless streak to 22 games with a 38-24 win and Minnesota whipped Los Angeles 42-21.

The Giants built a 17-13 lead at halftime as quarterback Y. A. Tittle plunged a yard for a touchdown. Bob Gaiters went two for another and Pat Summerall kicked a 41-yard field goal. The Packers scored on Hornung field goals of 23 and 25 yards and a 14-yard ramble by Taylor.

MORE MORE MORE
Then it settled down to a defensive struggle until Westminster stole the ball from Webster. The Giants had one more chance, rolling into Packers' territory behind Title's passing until Bob Gaiters tumbled on a double reverse and Willie Davis recovered on the Green Bay 27 with two minutes to go. The Packers ran out the clock.

Tim Brown sped 66 yards with a punt return in the third quarter to clinch it for the Eagles, then wound up the scoring with a 42-yard TD run in the final quarter. Sonny Jurgensen passed for two Philadelphia scores while Bobby Layne pitched three TD aerials for the Steelers (5-7), who fell behind at the outset when two interceptions of Rudy Bukich passes were turned into Philadelphia touchdowns.

The Browns beat the Cowboys (4-7-1) early, scoring three times in the opening period on Bernie Parrish's 34-yard run with a fumble, a 30-yard dash by Vince Costello with an interception and Jimmy Brown's yard plunge after another Parrish steal. Cleveland's Lou Groza kicked a field goal and five conversions for a career total of 824 points, one short of the NFL record held by Green Bay's Don Hutson.

Jim Martin of the Lions (7-4-1) had to kick an extra point from the 24-yard line following a penalty for the winning margin against the Bears (6-6) after the tying TD on a five-yard flip from Earl Morrall to Terry Barr with 22 seconds left. Roger LeClerc booted five field goals for Chicago, tying the league record.

The Colts (7-5) beat the 49ers (6-5-1) when Jimmy Orr grabbed a 41-yard payoff pitch from Johnny Unitas with 1:11 remaining after Steve Myhra had brought them within range with his second field goal. Sam Etcheberry passed for a pair of scores as the Cards (5-7) came from behind to whip the hapless Redskins (0-11-1).

Rookie quarterback Fran Tarkenton passed for four TDs in the Vikings (3-9) triumph over the Rams (3-9). Minnesota's Hugh McElhenny, former 49ers star, brought his total career yardage to 10,018.

14 Valley Cage Teams Plan Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fourteen non conference games are on tap for teams in the Missouri Valley basketball conference this week with opponents coming from scattered points, including the Big Eight and Big Ten conferences.

Tulsa and Wichita each have three games scheduled, Drake and Bradley one each and the others, St. Louis, North Texas State and Cincinnati, have two games.

Season opening tilts last Friday and Saturday nights saw the seven teams play eight games and post a record of five victories and three losses. Wichita played twice, defeating Colorado State University Friday night 64-36, and winning again Saturday night against Wyoming 78-54.

Other winners were Cincinnati 86-63 over Indiana State, St. Louis 70-42 over North Dakota State and Drake 90-81 over Indiana. North Texas State, Bradley and Tulsa lost their opening games. Lamar Tech beat North Texas 70 to 50, Bowling Green trounced Bradley 78-63 and Colorado State U. defeated Tulsa 95-78.

Cincinnati had a soft touch in posting its 23rd successive victory (counting last season's string). The Bearcats led Indiana State 39-26 at the half and coasted in, clamping a tight defense and taking off 73 rebounds to State's 40.

Chet Walker scored 25 points for Bradley in his team's loss to Bowling Green. Bradley was behind from the start and couldn't find the range until the game was well underway.

The St. Louis victory saw the Billikins hit 35 per cent from the field against South Dakota State's 20 per cent. The Bills also led in rebounds 77-46. State's top scorer, Bob Sheldon, couldn't play because of injuries.

Wichita's victory over Wyoming saw some excellent rebounding by Gene Wiley, Sam Smith and Wayne Durham. The trio cleared the backboard and set up Wichita's fast break attack. Lanny Van Eman's 17 points were tops.

Bill Green's 27 points topped Colorado State University in his team's victory over Tulsa. Tulsa's early lead faded after four starters were benched by fouls. In all, 53 fouls were called during the game, 31 of them against Tulsa.

This week's games:
Monday—Texas Western at Tulsa, St. Louis to Kansas, North Texas State at Hardin-Simmons, Nebraska at Wichita.

Tuesday—Miami (Okla.) at Cincinnati.
Wednesday—Wichita at North-western.
Thursday—Northern Michigan at Bradley, Tulsa at Detroit, Kansas State at St. Louis.

Friday—Wichita at Ohio State, Arkansas at North Texas.

Houston Surge Pleases Blanda

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Writer

The mighty George Blanda is getting most of the credit for Houston's American Football League surge that has shot it to the top of the Eastern Division and made it a favorite for the championship.

But what about the coach? Blanda, who put on a great show Sunday in leading the Oilers to a 33-13 victory over hitherto undefeated San Diego, certainly has earned all his encomiums. But this coach, Wally Lemm, must be the most successful one in the world today.

Houston hasn't lost a game since he took over Oct. 16 and now the record is seven straight. Lemm spoke of the team effort as he praised his boys for coming back from a 34-21 licking from San Diego more than two months ago to a most solid victory. He meant that the other boys were giving Blanda the help all great football players have to have to be great.

Gallivanting George passed for four touchdowns, kicked two field goals and converted three times—so that accounts for all the Houston points. "Our line gave Blanda some great protection," remarked Lemm.

Houston beat San Diego at its own game. The Chargers, who had won 11 straight and clinched the championship of the Western Division, were noted for their pass defense, having pilfered 43 for a record. Houston not only passed San Diego goody but intercepted three San Diego throws.

Houston maintained a game lead over Boston in the Eastern Division race and has only to beat New York and Oakland, a couple of clubs the Oilers already have clouted, to push into the championship playoff.

Boston hung in the race with a 28-24 victory over Denver and New York kept its hope slimly alive when it socked Dallas 28-7. New York is a game and a half off the Houston pace.

Buffalo edged Oakland 26-21 in the other AFL game Sunday but it meant nothing. Both are out of the race for anything except the cellar.

Houston goes to New York next Sunday. Boston will be at Oakland. San Diego hosts Buffalo and Denver will be at Dallas in the next to last Sunday of the regular race.

Babe Parilli paid for his salary as Boston beat Denver. He threw 51 yards for one touchdown and ran for another to pull the Patriots to victory.

Some league records were set —Houston broke its own record for attendance when 37,845 fans turned out; Houston's Charley Hennigan caught passes for 214 yards and that put him well over the 1500-yard mark—151 to be exact — and it was not only a league mark but bettered anything ever done by the rival National Football League.

Kenneth Lee Collins, 22, Route 2, Sedalia, suffered multiple lacerations, cuts, abrasions and bruises, in a one car accident about a mile north of Warsaw on U.S. Highway 65 about 12:30 a. m. Sunday.

According to a report given the State Highway Patrol Collins was driving a 1954 Dodge coach north toward Sedalia from Warsaw. Collins, according to Trooper Pete Stohr, reported a truck was coming toward him on his side of the highway and that he pulled to the opposite lane trying to avoid an accident and about that time the truck pulled back and caught the side of his car causing him to leave the pavement and go into a small pond on the west side of the highway.

Collins was taken to the office of Dr. Gus Salley, and then sent to Sedalia in the Reser ambulance and taken to Bothwell hospital where Dr. K. L. Holdren rendered medical treatment.

The car driven by Collins reportedly belongs to William E. Dillon, 1802 South Harrison.

One person was injured in a two-car accident in the 900 block on South Limit about 10:50 p.m. Saturday. Extensive damage resulted to the two vehicles involved.

Mrs. Marie Butcher, 45, Route 2, Slater, wife of the driver of one vehicle, Ralph E. Butcher, 47, suffered possible fracture of several ribs when she was thrown against the dash of their car. She was taken to Bothwell hospital in the Ewing ambulance where Dr. Stanley Fisher rendered medical attention and had x-ray pictures taken to determine the extent of her injuries.

Involved was the 1961 Pontiac sedan driven by Butcher and a 1959 Pontiac tudor sedan driven by Lindell G. Johnson 38, Elvins, Mo. The rear of the Butcher car was badly damaged as was the front end of the car driven by Johnson and owned by Robert Benton, of Annapolis, Mo.

According to the police report both vehicles were headed south on Limit and the car driven by Johnson ran into the rear of the car driven by Butcher. Johnson's car was towed from the scene by the wrecker from Schumakers DX Service Station. Johnson's car was parked at the Texaco station.

Would-be Executive Needs A Spouse Willing to Move

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:
One of the things a young, would-be executive needs most is a wife cheerfully willing to lead a semi-gypsy life. The averages executive is moved 12 times by his firm before he finally settles down to that big swivel chair in the home office.
It's fun to buy records in a Swedish music shop. You not only get to listen to a record free—you can also dance with the sales girl.
Even when you're wide awake you don't see 11 per cent of the time. This is because you blink every 2 and 1/4 seconds.
If your feet get tired, so do your shoes. A 150-pound person with a three-foot stride who walks 5 miles a day at the end of a year has put a total of 120,450 tons of weight on his shoes. Incidentally you'll probably buy 250 pairs of shoes in your lifetime.
Man versus Nature: Man is the fastest living thing on land or in the air. But swordfish have been clocked at sea swimming 57.5 miles per hour. Can man do that underwater?
Our Quotable Notables: "The penalty of success is to be bored by the attentions of people who formerly snubbed you."—Mary Wilson Little.
Well, sometimes you readers write in and correct me on the occasional errors in these items I pluck from my mail bag but do not guarantee. Here's one I doubt myself: "A genuine pearl's average life is no more than 50 years." What is the age of the oldest genuine pearl in your family?
The custom of having three names is comparatively new. William Makepeace Thackeray is one of the earliest and most prominent I can recall. Some 17 of the U.S. presidents were not at birth given a middle initial or middle name.
While we're on names, did you know that Rosetta Jacobs is Piper Laurie and Roy Fitzgerald is Rock Hudson?
Wisecrack of the Week: "Humor is a smoke screen that keeps us from being blinded by the truth."—Arnold H. Glasgow.
News from the world's most glamorous grandma: Marlene Dietrich's two best beauty secrets (1) A warm bath instead of a sleeping pill, and (2) warm soap and water to improve the complexion. (If these work for Marlene, why do your wife and my wife need 12 other secrets?)
Taking the load off Santa Claus: Between now and Christmas the U.S. postal service will deliver some 3.5 billion seasonal good will cards. Which, if put end to end (and to many a weary postman it must seem they are) would stretch one million miles.
Seniority: Only nine U.S. states have enough people 65 or older to make up more than 11 per cent of their population. They rank: Iowa, Missouri (ex-President Truman, and my mother who is 74, help keep up the longevity record there), Nebraska, New Hampshire, Vermont, Florida, Massachusetts, Kansas and Maine. Alaska is last—it has only 2.4 per cent of its people to call on for post-65 wisdom.

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I am against you, your column and all the sexy junk you peddle under the guise of advice. It was bad enough that you managed to get your trash into several hundred family newspapers but now I see you've written a best-seller. This means your ability to damage people is greater than ever.

I bought your book just to see how far you'd go and I was amazed. That chapter entitled Teenagers and Sex is shocking. You actually tell young people how to neck. What in the world is wrong with you that you would put out such dangerous information?

You are an evil influence on young people and I intend to write to every clergyman I know and ask them to write to you and set you straight. I'm also calling the book stores and asking them to take your book off their shelves.—AMERICAN MOTHER.

Dear Mother: Thank you for your letter. I sincerely hope you write to the clergymen. I've already written to the clergymen. I've addressed many faiths. This is what they had to say about the book and especially about the teenage chapter:

Lutheran: (Fargo, N. D.) "Wonderful common sense — exactly what our teenagers need." — Rev. J. Q.

Catholic: (South Bend, Ind.) "Simply terrific. So wise and witty and in language teenagers understand." — Father T. H. University of Notre Dame.

Methodist: (Ottawa, Kans.) "I want to give a copy of your book to every couple I marry." — Rev. C. P. K.

Church of Latter Day Saints: (Salt Lake City) "You speak basic truths, Ann Landers. May you be blessed with continued strength and energy to do His work." — J. R.

Episcopal: (Flint, Mich.) — "I appreciate the good you are doing. You are perceptive, quick and adroit." — Rev. G. A. M.

Jewish: (New Orleans) "Sensible, sound, to the point. This should be required reading for all teenagers and their parents as well." — Rabbi J. F.

Baptist: (New York) "Your frank, down-to-earth counsel is like a breath of fresh air in a world suffocating from materialism. You are a preacher in your own right." — Rev. R. S.

These, Mother, are a handful of letters selected at random. I've also had heartening support from physicians, psychiatrists, school teachers, social workers, parents and teenagers.

the price for a moment's foolishness is likely to be too high.

It's tougher to be a teenager today than when I grew up and it was no picnic then. Kids today have more leisure, more money to spend, more distractions and more choices to make.

They need information, guidance, and above all, understanding. This column gives me a chance to help millions of teenagers and I intend to hammer away using the same frank and positive language until my typewriter falls apart.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
